OBJECTIVE

Hey, I'm Riki, and for me, design is the way to bring ideas to life.

I see design as an opportunity to create something unique and meaningful, combining creativity with functionality.

In every project, I strive to find the perfect balance between aesthetics and practicality, paying attention to every detail to bring the vision to life.

I am dedicated to meeting challenges, open to guidance, and committed to precision and deadlines.

I offer flexibility in working hours, a high work capacity, the ability to perform under pressure and heavy workloads, and excellent interpersonal skills.
